Contestants have two minutes to own the stage, to rock the mic, and win over the audience with their original spoken word poetry. Judges from the audience rate each performance and two worthy wordsmiths will carry on to battle it out at the State Final at the Queensland Poetry Festival, Judith Wright Centre, on Sunday 28th August.

Only the first 20 competitors to sign up may compete.

Heat sign-up at 12.30pm is essential. If you'd like to sharpen your words before you hit the stage, come along to the morning slam masterclass with poet Angela Peita.
