library lovers' day

14 February 2017

ALIA

80
YEARS STRONG
1937 - 2017

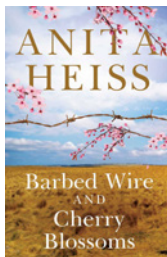

Lovers of Australia's libraries have claimed Valentine's Day – February 14 – as Library Lovers' Day. This national celebration encourages book lovers to embrace their local libraries and is a fun way to celebrate the deep and enduring relationship between the Australian community and its libraries, which are community meeting places and treasure troves of ideas and conversations. Some excellent presenters will be featured in the lead-up to and on the day in the City of Logan.

What's On at Logan Art Gallery

February, March and April 2017

Welcome

Logan Art Gallery showcases the best local and touring art, craft and design exhibitions. Be inspired by practical art workshops and exhibition talks, find beautiful, locally made artworks at the Gallery Store or the Creative Markets, and enjoy the activities in the Young Peoples Gallery. Logan Art Gallery is one of the most dynamic regional art galleries in South-East Queensland. We hope our new What's On sparks your creativity and encourages you to visit. We look forward to seeing you at the gallery.

Venue hire and group bookings

Logan Art Gallery, including its creative arts workshop, is available for private and community functions and events.

Large groups are encouraged to call and inform us of their intended visit. Logan Art Gallery staff will provide free tours to interested groups booking at least a week in advance of their visit. Groups can also book practical activities to further enhance their visit.

Activities

Meet the artists and participate in free events, activities and talks held in conjunction with the exhibition program.

- All children will need to be signed in and out by a parent, adult guardian or carer.
- Parents or carers are to remain with children aged seven and under.
- Closed in shoes must be worn by all activity participants.

Note that there is a limit of three workshop bookings per person per exhibition round.

Please notify the gallery if you are unable to attend, otherwise people on the waiting list will miss out.
