

CHOICE

Looking for product reviews online?

Try Choice online available now on the Logan City Council Libraries website.

Get started:

1. Access Choice online from the Logan City Council Libraries website loganlibraries.org
2. Click on Discover > eResources> Reference > Choice online
3. Enter your Library Card number and PIN when prompted.
4. Please note this database is only use in the Library and requires Library staff to type in the access password.

Choice tips:

1. On the Homepage there is a menu in the top right hand corner. Choose a category from the menu or browse through the webpage.
2. The  button is located at the top of the page near the menu.
3. Once you have selected a category there are options for

Review and compare

Buying guides

and Articles

Navigation tips:

1. To compare products side by side select the  button and choose up to six items.
2. To request a test send an email using the link at the  bottom of the home page and then

Important information

The Logan Libraries Choice account does not provide access to consumer advocacy information. To access the con-sumer rights and advocacy information you are required to be an individual member of CHOICE.