

Looking for documentary and educational videos online? Try Australasian Video Online available now on the LCC Library website

Get Started:

1. Access Australian Video Online from the Logan City Council Libraries website loganlibraries.org
2. Click on Discover> eResources> Reference > Australian Video Online
3. Enter your Library Card number and PIN when prompted.

Australasian Video Online
ALEXANDER STREET

Australasian Video Online
A multidisciplinary collection of videos from Australia, Asia and Pacific, on topics such as indigenous issues, cultural studies, environmental studies, anthropology, and immigration studies. Perfect for tertiary students as content is specifically designed for integration into today's undergraduate curriculum.

More Info

Navigation Tips:

Search inside this collection Advanced Search

1. Use the search box on the right hand side to enter search terms

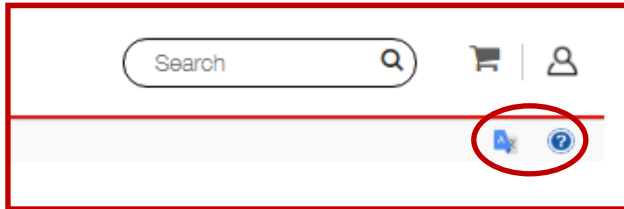

2. Or search by discipline and click on a box-

Anthropology, Asian Studies, Business and Economics, Education, Environmental Studies, Health sciences, History, Music and Performing Arts and Politics & Current Affairs

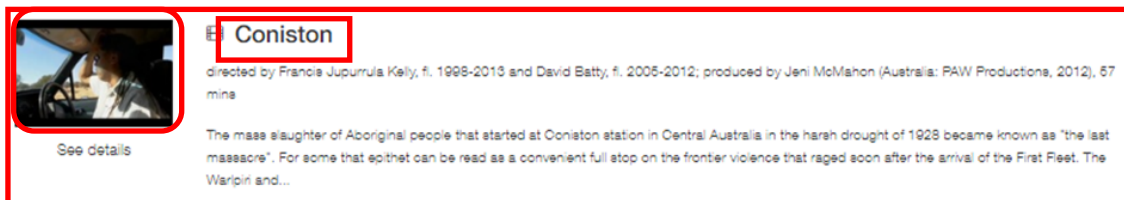

3. The menu on the left hand side also provides options for searching by Publisher, Subject, Featured Playlists and Browsing

Other hints and tips:

1. Locating the Language options is quite difficult– sometimes the icon doesn't appear straight away. It should appear beside the Question Mark in the upper right hand corner of the webpage

2. Videos can be selected by clicking on the picture or the title

3. Once the video displays, the transcript will appear on the right hand side, or in full screen mode  Closed Captions can be selected.

4. Options for playback appear in the toolbar underneath the video display

5. Other options for videos include those listed below as well as setting up your own account to create playlists, store related videos and organize references.

