How to use advanced search

1. Click on the white Advanced search button above Full catalogue.

2. Using the drop-down menus, you can search by one or multiple fields including Title, Author, Series, Subject etc.

A screenshot of the 'Advanced search' form. On the left is a sidebar with navigation options: 'All resources', 'Library catalogue', 'Quick search', 'Title', 'Author', 'Subject', and 'Advanced' (highlighted in orange). The main form has four rows of search criteria. The first row has 'Title' selected in a dropdown, with 'Harry Potter' in the text box, 'Keywords' in another dropdown, and 'AND' in a final dropdown. The second row has 'Author' selected, with 'J. K. Rowling' in the text box, 'Keywords', and 'AND'. The third row has 'Anywhere' selected, with an empty text box, 'Keywords', and 'AND'. The fourth row has 'Dewey class' selected, with an empty text box and 'AND'. The words 'Title', 'Author', and 'Anywhere' in the dropdowns are circled in red.

3. In the Added field, you have the option to select when the item was added to the catalogue.

A screenshot of the 'Advanced search' form, similar to the previous one. Below the search criteria, there is a 'Year:' field with a text box and the example 'e.g. 2007, > 2000, 1990-2005'. Below that is an 'Added:' dropdown menu with '3 months' selected. The 'Added:' dropdown is circled in red.

4. Select your preferred Language, Location, Collection and Material type. You do not need to select all options, just ones that apply to your search.

A screenshot of the filter options on the left side of the website. The options are: 'Archives', 'Events', 'Equipment bookings', 'Online resources', 'Reading challenges', 'Book groups', and 'External'. To the right are four dropdown menus: 'Language:' with options 'All languages', 'Achinese', 'Afrikaans'; 'Location:' with options 'All locations', 'Beenleigh Library', 'Future Library'; 'Collection:' with options 'All collections', 'Adult Fiction', 'Adult Non-Fiction'; and 'Material:' with options 'All materials', 'dvd', 'electronic resource'. Each of these four dropdown menus is circled in red.
